

■ Montagne's Meander

Starts and finishes at the Lookout

1.8km/1.1 miles | 148 ft total climb and total descent | 1-way trail

Montagne's Meander is the alternative trail going out from Lookout Point. This trail loops back close to Lookout, following beautiful, rolling terrain through lodgepole forests as it circumnavigates a high point known as Downey's Butte. Montagne's Meander is mostly one-directional, with a short section of two-way traffic. Always be aware of other skiers and your surroundings.
